

Dr. Girish N. Singh

LL.M., Ph.D, UGC-NET

Specialization- Law of Contract, Insurance Law, Law of Taxation, Constitutional Law, Intellectual Property Rights, International Law, ADR Law, Company Law

He did his Schooling and Graduation in Bokaro Steel City, Bokaro, Jharkhand and completed his LL.B., LL.M. and Ph.D. from the Law School, Banaras Hindu University, Varanasi, U.P. He finished PhD under the supervision of Prof (Dr.) Sukh Pal Singh, Former Professor of Law School, BHU, Varanasi and Former VC of Hidayatullah National Law University (HNLU), Raipur, C.G. in the year 2012 on “Admissibility of Scientific Techniques of Criminal Investigation in India: Problems & Prospects”. He qualified UGC-NET in June, 2007. He is a member of discussion group ‘academique’ started by Professor D.P. Verma of Law School, BHU who was also Additional Director of Indian Judicial Academy, Bhopal, M.P and is also a member of All India Law Teachers’ Congress, New Delhi. He joined present institution in the year 2012 and has a teaching experience in both LL.B., and LL.M. classes of more than Eight years. He has published two articles in refereed journals of repute. He has also supervised one Dissertation of LL.M. He has contributed as Resource Person in Workshops and Seminars and has also delivered lectures in many training programmes of PLVs and junior advocates in District Legal Services Authority, Janjgir-Champa and Workshop on RTI in the District Collectorate, Janjgir-Champa, C.G. He has also presided over the proceedings of Moot Court competitions in the Guru Ghasidas Vishwavidyalaya, Bilaspur, C.G. He is one of the members of the convening committee for running the Law Coaching for students and ex students in the college and has also been in various important committees of this college.